GET behind me SATAN
WHOEVER LOSES THIS LIFE FOR ME
WILL FIND IT AGAIN

Today's gospel, like many others, does not instantly sound like good news. At first, it may disturb and trouble us. Only by dwelling on it can we discover its welcome truth. Jesus calls us to renounce ourselves, take up our cross and let go of our lives. None of this is meant to cast a sad shadow over us. Jesus never sought out suffering, nor does he teach us to. He simply tells the truth: that the way to life opens up when we cast off the tyranny of self and give ourselves wholeheartedly to the task of love.

The week's prayer focus

You do not ask us, Lord, to go in search of the cross but to take up the cross that life brings. Give us the courage to embrace the daily cross of love's demands and to find you there.
