10th August 2014

19th Sunday of the Ordinary Time "A"

In today's readings we hear of God's power over the forces of nature. Yet despite all that power and mastery, God is powerless if our hearts and minds remain closed by fear. The power of God's love and forgiveness awaits the openness of faith.

The readings present us with a challenge to face and overcome the true enemy of faith, fear.

✦ This following Friday, 15th August, the Church is celebrating the feast of Assumption of the Virgin Mary. This day is obligatory and we will have Holy Masses at 08h30am and 06h00pm. Let's celebrate the great victory of our Mother Mary by participating in the Holy Eucharist.

✦ A big thanks to Cathy Smith for the beautiful embroidery, with Christian symbols, on the altar linen made by CWL. Thank you Cathy.

✦ First Holy Communion: This year we will have a very special celebration of the Eucharist. The first group of children will receive the Body and Blood of Christ on the 07th of September and the second on the 14th of September during the 09h30 Mass. I hope that the whole Parish will participate in this event. Please pray for the children who shall be receiving this Sacrament.

✦ Church gardens: We are appealing to each family in our Parish to donate one bag of Compost (Big thanks to those who already donated). Please participate in this initiative. Our sincere thanks and appreciation to those who have given monetary donations. Rest assured your donation will be used wisely for the gardens. (Monetary donations marked iGardeni still welcome). If you love gardening and wish to assist and/or get involved, please contact Stella Kleb (012 993 3959 / 082 364 2414 or skleb@iafrica.com)

✦ Registration drive: Thank you for completing and returning your registration forms.

✦ Confirmation retreat 2014

✦ We are hosting a retreat for confirmation candidates on the weekend of 15 - 17 Aug. It will take place at a retreat centre just outside of Cullinan.

✦ The confirmation retreat will impact greatly on the development of the children's faith and their commitment to being a devout Catholic. We ask you for as many prayers as possible over the weekend, as well as for the individual children. At the back of the church there are two lists. One of all the candidates: please sign next to a name as a commitment to pray for the child daily until the time of their confirmation. The other, a list of half hour slots for the retreat weekend. Please pick an empty slot so we have continuous prayer for the retreat.

✦ It would be great if you could help contribute towards the retreat. Please take one of the papers, with a number of items needed, and donate anything you can.

✦ If there are any enquiries about the retreat please contact Stanley (0846656677 or stanley@partyshop.co.za).

✦ Marriage Preparation Course for 2014 will take place at St John Fisher Parish Church, Lynnwood on Saturday, 6 September 09h00 - 15h00. The course will be conducted by the experts in the field - Prof of Philosophy: Thomas Jacobs and his wife; Medical Doctor: Prof. Elzbieta Osuch; Clinical Psychologist: Dr Alda de Wet; Attorney: Liesel Visagie. Couples who plan to get married in the near future are requested to contact Fr Bogdan and enrol for the course.

✦ The CWL. Next Sunday, 17th August, is CWL Sunday through the Pretoria Diocese. In Lynnwood this will be celebrated at the 9h30am Mass and a second collection will be taken up at all the masses for the Family Life Centre which is the Welfare arm of the Catholic Women's League.

✦ Knight of da Gama Blanket Fund Drive On Saturday 30th and Sunday 31st August the Knights of da Gama, Council 4, Pretoria will be in attendance at all the Masses to collect funds, blankets or clothing for their annual Blanket Fund Drive. The collection will be used for purchasing blankets for the following winter which will then be sent along with other blankets and clothes collected to beneficiaries in the Pretoria Archdioceses for be distributed to the needy. Your donations will be greatly appreciated, God Bless.

✦ The †Pretoria Catholic Charismatic Renewal (PCCR) would like to conduct Healing Masses at the parish of St John Fisher in Lynnwood. This Healing Mass will take place 27th August 2014 at 19h00 till 21h00. All most welcome.
