We have just 2 more Sundays to go, before we close catechism classes for the winter break. Our last lesson for this term is 20 June 2021. We shall resume classes again on 29 August

2021. We shall also let you know if any additional classes are required before the First Holy Communion (FHC) Mass (date still to be confirmed).

You will appreciate that this is a very important year for our Grade 3's and we have had to have physical classes to ensure that we cover as much of the curriculum as possible. You will recall that we got off to quite a late start in 2021, and also had one of our long-serving FHC teachers leave us, but are in very capable hands of Charmaine. We also did not have sufficient teachers, nor children to warrant a Thursday class, hence we appreciate you accommodating our constraints. Regarding the pandemic, our Grade 3 class allows for sufficient social distancing, and we ensure that the tables and chairs are sanitised. Please ensure that your children continue to wear their masks, and if they present any symptoms, please do not send them to class. Please liaise directly with Charmaine who will ensure that they receive the work covered during their absence. Unfortunately, for FHC and Confirmation, virtual classes are not an option currently. Please do not hesitate to get in touch with me if you have any concerns. Wishing you well for the next 2 Sundays ahead. Take care and God Bless! Nicki 0828359432
