✠ DEAR FRIENDS, this is an appeal for your generosity. We have been involved with a Centre for Handicap children in Moldova for some time and we are currently in the process of raising funds for an inside toilet at the center. WOW! We closed the bonus day with $5,580 and 53 donors; we are currently in 11th place in the September Global Giving challenge. Thank you! Though we have reached our goal, we are still competing for prizes to help our project. This means that there is still time. If you have not contributed, we can still use your help. If you have any questions, please contact Alejandra Porres (0760394750), thank you and God bless you. The Steaua Calauza team.

✠ FIRST SOUTH AFRICAN SAINT

South Africa has its first officially recognised saint in the person of Blessed Benedict Daswa. His feast day will be celebrated on February 1 of each year. Benedict was brutally murdered on 2 February 1990. In the late afternoon, as he was driving home, the road was blocked with stones and logs. He alighted to remove the blockade. A rain of stones came from the bushes. They got him out and as he prayed "Father, receive my spirit", they clubbed him with a knobkerrie. He fell and died. They poured boiling water on his ears and nostrils to ensure that he was dead. The opponent of their witchcraft beliefs was dead. He had said that, as a Catholic, he could not accept the power of witchcraft nor the attacks of witch-hunt. For this reason, the Church has recognised him as a Blessed Martyr a true witness of the Faith.
