THIS MESSAGE IS FROM THE MOST REVEREND ARCHBISHOP WILLIAM SLATTERY OFM

In his message for Lent 2018, our Holy Father Pope Francis has requested all Catholics to set aside “24 hours” for the Lord. This should begin on Friday, 9th of March, and conclude on Saturday, 10th of March. Let us make a special effort and responding to our own unique situation set aside this special time during Lent to pray with the church throughout the world.

RENEW AFRICA

Marie McCrea van der Merwe has decided to step down as coordinator of Renew Africa due to a heavy work load. Thank you Marie for encouraging and directing our groups in the parish and we wish you a time of peace and rest. Below please see Marie’s farewell wishes:
“I want to thank each and every one of you and the members of your SCC’s for the love, time and effort you put into being part of the Renew Africa family. I know many friendships have been formed from this group and I pray that you will continue in this spirit and in service of our faith. I have gained so much from this community and am grateful for the blessings received. You will remain in my thoughts and prayers as I hope I will in yours.”

If anyone would like to become more involved in this portfolio please contact the following – Vanessa King 071 156 0499, Ntombi Zitha – 079 048 5109 & Lillian Naidoo 083 4191588

ACTS

ACTS - Association of Catholic Tertiary Students University of Pretoria branch is in the process of registering its members. If you are a student at UP please register. It will give more weight to the Catholic presence at UP. This doesn’t mean you are obliged to participate regularly in the activities. The registration will take place on Monday (26th Feb) and Wed (28th Feb), at the Piazza main campus, from 9.30 am to 15.30. Many thanks! Stay blessed. Fr. Manuel m.c.graca16@gmail.com
