ST JOHN FISHER (Bishop and martyr) and ST THOMAS MORE (Martyr)
On the 22nd June we celebrate the memorial of two outstanding Englishmen: St. John Fisher was the only bishop who resisted King Henry VIII on the question of dissolving his marriage and did not accept him as head of the Church. While in prison, Pope Paul III made him a cardinal. Thomas More, the Chancellor of King Henry VIII, would not sign the oath of fidelity that the king demanded. Both were executed in 1535 for their loyalty to the Church. May they please intercede for us.

GREETINGS FROM POLAND
