WINTER LIVING THEOLOGY JESUIT INSTITUTION: The Gospel: would one book not have been enough?

In the second century, Tatian proposed merging the four Gospel accounts into one harmonized text. The Church rejected this proposal. Would it not have made our lives simpler? This series of presentations will illustrate the richness of having a multiplicity of renditions of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. By engaging in a reading of select texts from the three books of Mark, Matthew and Luke, we will discover how three complementary portraits of Jesus emerge that deepen our understanding of who he is in our lives.
